Awards to be Instituted through External Endowment

Fields:

- Best Academic Performance for Girl Student
- Best Performance in Sports by Girl Student
- Best Performance in Sports by Boy Student
- For Outstanding community service
- R&D innovation award for software development
- R&D Innovation award for Prototype design and Fabrication
- Excellence in co-curricular activities
- Excellence in Entrepreneurship

In addition to the above mentioned fields the endowments for awards in other fields may also be proposed.

Guidelines for Endowment

(i) Each award will be instituted for a maximum period of 10 years which can be terminated or renewed.

(ii) No award will be instituted in the name of a living person.

(iii) Third party instituting the award will not be considered.

(iv) The award should be instituted by a person or organization, for example, an eminent educationist/researcher/visionary/alumnus/organization with excellence in research and innovation relevant to the institute's vision.

(v) Only the field of excellence will be embossed on the medal.

(vi) No religious affiliation will be considered for instituting the award.

(vii) The endowment amount for instituting the award for a period of 10 years is Rs. 5 lakhs.

(viii) Full and final rights of acceptance of endowment rests with competent authority of IIT Jodhpur.

(ix) Tax exemption will be provided as per norms.

Last date for the endowment applications for instituting awards in Convocation-2013 is June 20th 2013